Approved For Release 2003/01/29 : CLA-RDP60E01676R002300160001-1

MINUTES OF DEPUTIES' MEETINGS

2 July 1954 to 31 December 1954

TOP SERVE

Approved For Release 2003/01/29C: RFA-RDP80B01676R002300160001-1

DM-310

DEPUTIES* MEETING

Friday, 2 July 1954

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, General Cabell, Mr. Wisner, Mr. Amory Col. White, Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Helms, Bissel.

Sheldon,

25X1

_	Mr.	Dulles:
					2	25X1

Approved For Release 2003/01/29 : CIA-RDP80B01676R002300160001-1

a. Noted that the International Communism Branch had published an excellent study on the Communist Party Penetration Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive employed they should be advised as to the reason for resimples.	Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive offices Further, when such people are employed they should be advised as to the reason for assignment to non-operational type jobs.	a. Noted that the International Communism Branch had published an excellent study on the Communist Party Penetration Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive	Col. White (continued)	1
a. Noted that the International Communism Branch had published an excellent study on the Communist Party Penetration Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive offices Further, when such people are employed they should be advised as to the reason for continuous.	a. Noted that the International Communism Branch had published an excellent study on the Communist Party Penetration Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive offices Further, when such people are employed they should be advised as to the reason for assignment to non-operational type jobs.	a. Noted that the International Communism Branch had published an excellent study on the Communist Party Penetration Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive offices. Further, when such people are employed they should be advised as to the reason for assignment to non-operational type jobs.
a. Noted that the International Communism Branch had published an excellent study on the Communist Party Penetration Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive employed they should be advised as to the reason for accimunate.	a. Noted that the International Communism Branch had published an excellent study on the Communist Party Penetration Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive offices Further, when such people are employed they should be advised as to the reason for assignment to non-operational type jobs.	a. Noted that the International Communism Branch had published an excellent study on the Communist Party Penetration Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive offices Further, when such people are employed they should be advised as to the reason for assignment to non-operational type jobs.	N. W. I
Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive employed they should be advised as to the reason for reasons.	Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive offices Further, when such people are employed they should be advised as to the reason for assignment to non-operational type jobs.	Program. The Director indicated he might send this document to the Vice President to read and in particular, draw his attention to that portion of communist subversion in Guatamala. b. Raised the question of employing wives of newspapermen and the Director said he saw no objection to such employment in the overt side of the Agency in some of the less sensitive offices Further, when such people are employed they should be advised as to the reason for assignment to non-operational type jobs.	mr. Kirkpatrick:
	Mr. Helms:	Mr. Helms:	Program. The Director indicate to the Vice President to read attention to that portion of the Director said he saw in the overt side of the Agen offices employed they should be advis	on the Communist Party Penetration ated he might send this document and in particular, draw his communist subversion in Guatamala. of employing wives of newspaperment no objection to such employment cy in some of the less sensitive Further, when such people are ed as to the reason for sessions.

25X1

25X1